2016 Region IV Memorial Service
Constable David Wynn
Royal Canadian Mounted Police
Born: October 18, 1972    Died: January 21, 2015

Constable Wynn died from injuries received after he and another officer were shot in a St. Albert casino during a stolen vehicle investigation.

He was a much loved DARE officer at Keenooshayo Elementary School.

Inspired after recovering from a serious crash, he became a paramedic. After spending time with RCMP officers while a paramedic, he got the idea to become one himself.

Dave enjoyed all types of outdoor activities including fishing, camping, snowmobiling and dirt biking.

Dave lived for his three boys and actively made their pursuits his own. He also leaves his wife.
Officer Toni Kristinsson

British Columbia Vehicle Safety and Enforcement
End of Watch: February 1, 2015 at the age of 40

Officer Toni Kristinsson was killed in a vehicle after his department vehicle collided with a commercial vehicle, causing him to suffer fatal injuries. The driver of the other vehicle suffered minor injuries.

Officer Kristinsson had served with Commercial Vehicle Safety and Enforcement for three years.

He is survived by his wife, son, and sister.
Trooper Taylor Thyfault

Colorado State Patrol
End of Watch: May 23, 2015

On May 23, 2015, Trooper Thyfault was riding with Trooper Rushing as part of his ongoing training. During the early morning hours, they responded to a three-car crash. Shortly after 8:00 a.m., another trooper attempted to stop a vehicle approximately three miles from the crash scene. The suspect eluded the trooper and drove towards the crash scene and hit Trooper Rushing and Trooper Thyfault. Trooper Rushing suffered serious bodily injury and Trooper Thyfault succumbed to his injuries instantly at the scene.

Thyfault entered the Patrol March 15, 2015. He was an exceptional and ambitious young man. In May 2016 his name will be added to the National Law Enforcement Memorial to honor fallen officers. His mom will be there to honor his life and celebrate his many accomplishments.
Constable Dan Woodall, EPS

Edmonton Police, Hate Crimes Unit
End of Watch: June 8, 2015 at the age of 35

Const. Daniel Woodall died in the fight against hate.

The eight-year veteran was shot several times on the doorstep of a home in west Edmonton while serving an arrest warrant relating to a hate crimes matter.

“He had a passion for protecting Edmontonians and combatting hate, and that's a legacy we will always remember”, said his colleagues.

He was recruited from Great Britain, where he served with the Greater Manchester Police for seven years.

He leaves behind a wife and two young boys.
Detective Brent Hanger

Washington State Patrol
Tour: 18 years
End of Watch: August 6, 2015

Detective Hanger suffered from a medical episode while following up on a tip regarding a marijuana grow in Yakima County.

He was well liked, respected, and loyal to his family, as well as his WSP family.

In 2000, Detective Hanger received the Award of Merit for assisting in saving the life of a suicidal person.

Detective Hanger was a native of Washington and is survived by his wife Lisa, six children, and a host of family and friends. He was loved and will be missed tremendously by all who knew him.
Carole Waggoner Bedwell

California DMV
Chief Deputy Director
Date of death: October 5, 2015

Carol died at the age of 74 after a short battle with cancer.
Distinguished 36 year career with the DMV that included heading the legislative office, Chief of the Program and Policy Administration, and Chief Deputy Director.
Carol retired in October 1997 and moved with her husband to Marana, Arizona.
She served on numerous AAMVA Committees, and was instrumental in the development of the original CDL program.
Jeff Doll

Alaska Division of Motor Vehicles
Analyst Programmer III
Employed December 8, 2014 to September 14, 2015

Died September 14, 2015

Jeff was an Air Force brat, who later served in the Air Force himself and worked for the state for more than 20 years

He was a much loved father, grandfather, son, brother and good friend to many
Carolyn Stubblefield

Oregon Drivers and Motor Vehicle Services
Passed away on October 23rd, 2015 at the age of 63

Carol is remembered as a hard worker who held multiple jobs to ensure that her kids had what they needed. She eventually she found a career at DMV and made many friendships over the 20 years she worked there.

She enjoyed camping, seeing her grandchildren laugh and making sure their chores were done. She loved to read, relax with loved ones, enjoying nature, and planning trips for family and friends.

She will be dearly missed. Her colleagues take strength from her legacy.
Trooper Jamie Jursevics

Colorado State Patrol
End of Watch: November 15, 2015

Trooper Jursevics was assisting a fellow trooper in protecting the scene of a previous crash site. She received notice of a possible drunk driver and learned the suspect vehicle was approaching her location. Trooper Jursevics immediately began attempts to flag down the suspect vehicle. Moments later, the reported drunk driver collided with Trooper Jursevics, killing her instantly. The suspect vehicle fled the scene but was apprehended by the Palmer Lake PD approximately 15 miles from the crash scene.

Jursevics entered the Patrol January 9, 2011. Jaimie was a great friend, wife, mother Trooper and person. She left behind a loving husband and beautiful 8-month old daughter. In May, her name will be added to the National Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial to honor fallen officers. Her husband will be there to honor her life and sacrifice.
Tina Brooks

Alaska Department of Motor Vehicles
Motor Vehicle Customer Service Representative I

Employed August 3-November 17, 2015
Passed away on Monday, November 23, 2015 at the age of 53 due to sudden heart failure
Described by friends and colleagues as a bright, capable, sweet lady, with a good sense of humor
Annette Moore

Colorado DMV
Born 1965  Died February 7, 2016

Annette is remembered for her exceptional customer service skills, procedural knowledge, and compassion for the elderly.

In the face of personal adversity, she never once failed to put the needs of coworkers and customers before her own. Her optimism was unparalleled and few words adequately describe her selfless sacrifice for others.

Annette leaves behind a devoted husband, three beautiful daughters, her extended family in the Philippines, numerous friends and her “work” family.

“We will miss her exceptional work ethic, her eternal optimism, and the many ways she inspired us on a daily basis”, say her colleagues.
Officer Nathan Taylor

California Highway Patrol
Age: 35
Tour: Six years
End of Watch: Sunday, March 13, 2016

Officer Taylor was directing traffic at the scene of a previous accident when a vehicle suddenly changed lanes and accelerated past slowing traffic. The vehicle struck Officer Taylor, causing him to be thrown into the median. He suffered two broken legs and internal injuries. He was transported to a local hospital where he succumbed to his injuries the following day.

Officer Taylor had served with the California Highway Patrol for six years. He is survived by his wife, three sons, parents, sister, and three brothers. One of his brothers also serves with the California Highway Patrol.
Constable Sarah Beckett

Royal Canadian Mounted Police, British Columbia
End of Watch: April 5, 2016 at the age of 32

Constable Beckett was killed when her patrol car was struck by a pickup truck in Langford, British Columbia. She was on patrol at approximately 3:30 am when the collision occurred.

Constable Beckett had served with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for 11 years. She is survived by her husband and two children.
Catherine Jones

Wyoming Department of Transportation

Cathy was driver license examiner for the State of Wyoming for 10 years. She was “small” in stature but had a “big” impact with DOT’s Casper employees and public alike. She always had a kind word, a quick and witty response and was always positive with everyone. Cathy passed away on April 11, 2016 after a long and very courageous battle with cancer.