Tips to Keep Teen Drivers Safe Ahead of '100 Deadliest Days' (New York)

As teen drivers get set to take the road during what's historically proven to be the deadliest time of the year, parents should make sure that their children fully understand the dangers of driving and the proper precautions they should take. During the "100 Deadliest Days," which stretch from Memorial Day to Labor Day, over 8,300 people died nationwide in crashes involving teen drivers from 2008 to 2018, according to AAA. OPP Concerned About Rise in Motorcycle Deaths (Ontario)

OPP are concerned about a spike in motorcycle deaths this month during Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month. All four deaths this year on OPP patrolled roads occurred in the month of May. "OPP investigations into the collisions revealed that in separate incidents, two of the four motorcyclists who died were driving properly at the time of the collision," according to a police release. "The incidents mark the latest reminder that even safe motorcyclists are vulnerable when sharing the road with other vehicles and that motor vehicle drivers play an important role in motorcycle safety." GA Motorists Reminded to Share the Road by GMSP (Georgia)

May is Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month and The Georgia Department of Driver Services (DDS) Georgia Motorcycle Safety Program (GMSP) wants to remind all motorists to "Share The Road" especially during this month... "We must spread the word to vehicle drivers to keep an eye out for motorcyclists and to always remember to Share the Road," said DDS Commissioner Spencer R. Moore. "It is very easy to overlook a motorcycle due to its smaller size. For this reason, it's all the more vital

AAA: 68 People Die in Crashes Involving Teen Drivers Every Summer in Texas

New data from AAA looks at fatal teen crash rates during the summer. According to AAA, 750 people were killed just in Texas in crashes involving teen drivers in the past ten years during the “100 Deadliest Days,” the period between Memorial Day and Labor Day. The “100 Deadliest Days” is the period between Memorial Day and Labor Day. That’s more than seven people a day, compared to the rest of the year during which an average of six people a day are killed. Read more at ktxs.com.

VSP: Traffic Crashes Claim Eight Lives During 2020 Memorial Day Weekend (Virginia)

The 2020 Memorial Day weekend not only netted a reduction in overall traffic volumes on Virginia’s highways, but also a decrease in traffic deaths. Preliminary reports indicate eight people lost their lives during the four-day holiday statistical counting period. During the same statistical counting period in 2019 and 2018, traffic crashes on Virginia highways resulted in 11 deaths. Read more at nbc29.com.

REGION 3 NEWS

Memorial Day Weekend Was Deadliest on Minnesota Roads Since 2010

State traffic safety officials say Minnesota saw the deadliest Memorial Day weekend in a decade. According to the Department of Public Safety, there were eight fatalities in six crashes over the holiday weekend. That was the most since 2010, when nine motorists were killed during the same period. One of this year’s fatal crashes was alcohol related and two were speed related. 1,700 Speeders, 3 Fatalities in Alberta During Canada Road Safety Week

Alberta roads typically experience an influx of drivers during long weekends. Due to the ongoing pandemic, this year was different than all others. Throughout Canada Road Safety Week (May 12-18), Alberta RCMP focused enforcement operations on speeding, distracted and impaired driving. Between May 15-18, 2020, there were three fatal and 19 non-fatal injury motor vehicle collisions in Alberta RCMP jurisdictions. Read more at lacombeonline.com.

Mobileye, Intel's driverless vehicle R&D division...published a 40-minute video of one of its cars navigating a 160-mile stretch of Jerusalem streets. The video features top-down footage captured by a drone, as well as an in-cabin cam recording, parallel to an overlay showing the perception system's input and predictions. The perception system was introduced at the 2020 Consumer Electronics Show and features 12 cameras, but not radar, lidar, or other sensors. Eight of those cameras have long-range lenses, while four serve as "parking cameras" and all 12 feed into a compute system built atop dual 7-nanometer data-fusing, decision-making Mobileye EyeQ5 chips.
