FLHSMV Launches New Crash Records Portal (Florida)
The Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (FLHSMV) has launched a new crash records portal at FloridaCrashPortal.gov. The new Florida Crash Portal provides comprehensive information about purchasing a crash report, reporting a crash and accessing the state’s latest crash data...Drivers involved in minor crashes with no injuries and less than $500.00 in property damage may be eligible to self-report a crash in lieu of a law enforcement officer completing the report. The Florida Crash Portal guides motorists through the eligibility requirements for self-reporting crashes and provides a link to submit a self-reported crash form. Customers can also download and email themselves a copy of the self-report form for their records. Additionally, the Florida Crash Portal includes a NEW Crash Dashboard to provide up-to-date, interactive statewide crash data for the public. Read more at flhsmv.gov.

A Look Inside the New Driver Licensing Office (Nebraska)
This time last year, it took over 30 minutes to renew a driver’s license or state identification card in north Omaha. Every day, customers were seated in a packed room, waiting to be served. Two weeks ago, the State Department of Motor Vehicles replaced the Florence location with a new office, located just north of 56th & Ames. The new state office, situated in a renovated building at 4606 N 56th Street, Suite 100, has greatly reduced wait times for customers. Customers will have a much more spacious waiting area, although with an average wait time of only 4.5 minutes, they won’t be waiting around for long. In contrast to June 2018, this is an 85% reduction. Feedback from customers has been extremely positive with nearly 90% positive feedback being provided through the in-office customer service terminals. Read more at dmv.nebraska.gov.

FMCSA Issues ICR on Entry-Level Driver Training, Indicates Compliance Extension
The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) has issued an information collection request (ICR) that may be utilized by Medical Examiners (MEs) responsible for issuing Medical Examiner’s Certificates (MECs) to commercial motor vehicle (CMV) drivers.
