eRemind: Sign Up

Sign up for eRemind and we'll e-mail you when it's time to renew your vehicle registration. We'll still send the paper renewal notice in your regular mail.

Here’s how eRemind works:

- You’ll receive a friendly little e-mail reminder 3 weeks before your sticker expires. (Don’t forget to add eRemind@TxDMV.gov to your address book so the eRemind doesn’t wind up in your junk mail.)

- If you don’t renew your registration after the first reminder, we’ll e-mail you another 1 week before the due date. (After that, well...Do we have to remind you that an out-of-date sticker can get you a citation?)

Simply fill in the information below. (You can usually find your Vehicle Identification Number and License Plate Number on your insurance card.) We’ll remind you to renew.

Thanks for signing up for the TxDMV eReminder!— We’ll send you an e-mail reminder 3 weeks before your vehicle registration expires.

We also understand you’re a busy person and might need another reminder. If you don’t renew after the first e-mail, we’ll send another a week before your expiration date. If you do renew right away (remember in most counties you can renew online), we won’t send the second reminder.
