RE: DHS to Defer Enforcement of Real ID until Fall 2013

---

Tonight DHS is sending REAL ID compliance letters to all states. DHS will defer enforcement of REAL ID at least until the Fall of 2013 when they will publish a schedule of phased enforcement to begin a suitable date thereafter. DHS is also distributing a press release (attached) and a FAQ (available at <http://www.dhs.gov/secure-drivers-licenses>). Please see the DHS attachment and look for detailed information concerning your jurisdiction to come from DHS in the next 24 hours.
