

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 29, 2013

Contact:

Claire O'Brien, Marketing Coordinator, AAMVA

703.908.2955

cobrien@aamva.org

AAMVA Welcomes Delaware Official as Chair of the AAMVA International Board of Directors

Arlington, VA – During its 80th Annual International Conference in Scottsdale, Arizona, the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators (AAMVA) elected Jennifer Cohan, Director of the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) of the Delaware Department of Transportation, as Chair of its International Board of Directors. Cohan's career in public service has spanned nearly 24 years, culminating in her appointment as Director of the DMV.

"We are very excited to have Jennifer Cohan leading us into 2014 as AAMVA Chair," said AAMVA President & CEO Neil Schuster. "Her experience, along with her enthusiasm and commitment to public service, will benefit AAMVA greatly in the forthcoming year."

Cohan has held an array of leadership positions within the Delaware Department of Transportation in the areas of Planning, Finance and Motor Carrier Safety. She has also worked as a Senior Legislative Analyst for the Delaware State Legislature within the Office of the Controller General. In addition to her career in public service, Cohan is also an adjunct professor at Wilmington University and President of the Greater Dover Boys and Girls Club board of directors.

Founded in 1933, AAMVA actively promotes traffic safety and uniformity among North American jurisdictions. Representing chief motor vehicle administrators and law enforcement officials, the association develops uniform programs in driver licensing, vehicle titling/registration and motor carrier services, among others.

For more information visit www.aamva.org.

AAMVA