

Interlock Law

Highlights

- First Offense DUI – licensee can opt for 6 months IID, in lieu of 90 day suspension
- Second Offense DUI – After 45 days of suspension/revocation, licensee may get the IID in lieu of remainder of susp/rev time.
- Third Offense DUI – After 180 days of susp/rev, licensee may get the IID I
- Fourth/Subsequent DUI – after 1 year of the susp/rev time, licensee may get the IID

How long is IID Required ?

- 1st offense within 5 yr. period: Not required
UNLESS:
- Licensee opts for the IID in lieu of suspension (6 mos)
- Refusal of chemical test
- Child under age of 14 in vehicle
- Injury to anyone other than the offender

- If any of the last 3 conditions apply, then it's required for 2 yrs. from issuance of driver license

How long is IID Required ?

- 2nd offense – 2 years unless ANY of the previously mentioned conditions apply, then time is doubled.
- 3rd offense – 3 years unless ANY of the conditions apply, then time is doubled.
- 4th or subsequent – 5 years unless ANY of the conditions apply, then time is doubled

- Alabama Statistics- September 2012

Number of breath tests	8775
Initial Test Failures	60
Rolling Re-test Failures	12
Tests between .025 and .079	58
Tests between .080 and .099	4
Tests between .10 and .159	5
Tests .16 and above	5
Number of attempts to tamper	93