Ms. Hanchulak,

Trooper First Class Chris Spradlin has been selected as the Kentucky State Police nominee for AAMVA Examiner of the Year. Tfc. Spradlin became employed by the Kentucky State Police after servicing a four year term in the United States Army. He has been a Commercial Driver License Skills Test Examiner since 2005. Trooper Spradlin is an 18 year veteran of the Kentucky State Police.

Tfc. Spradlin has many responsibilities within the Driver Testing Branch. He is responsible for administering Commercial Driver License Skills Tests daily to test applicants. He conducts initial training for all new hires and annual in-service training for all third party school bus examiners. Additionally, he is responsible for conducting CDL audits/check rides twice per year on each school bus examiner.

Tfc. Spradlin is very conscientious regarding being punctual in the administration of his duties. He accepts assignments with enthusiasm and strives to complete all tasks without error. Tfc. Spradlin takes immense pride in his appearance. His uniform is always neat, professional, and well kept. Tfc. Spradlin's conduct is exemplary and serves as an example to other employees. He treats the public with respect and maintains a positive attitude and high level of customer service. Tfc. Spradlin is always willing to fill any work related need that arises and provide coverage anywhere. His attitude is always positive toward such a request. He is always willing to do whatever it takes to get the job done.

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER M/F/D

Upon review of Tfc. Spradlin's personnel file, one will quickly note excellent evaluations, positive performance specific contacts forms and letters of appreciation from the citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Tfc. Spradlin is an asset to the Kentucky State Police and the Driver Testing Branch and a great example of how sworn personnel can function effectively within a civilian culture. I am proud to nominate Trooper First Class Chris Spradlin as the AAMVA Examiner of the Year.
