Dear Ms. Hanchulak;

Montana has chosen Milo Coladonato as our outstanding Examiner and our nomination for the IDEC Examiner of the Year.

Milo is a CDL/VIN Specialist in our Missoula Driver Exam Station. He has been employed in driver licensing for almost 20 years and during that time he has been a dedicated, conscientious, and hard-working employee.

Missoula is the second largest exam station in the State of Montana and consequently, staff there are responsible for performing hundreds of CDL tests each year. Milo has been the anchor for that station and continues to conduct the majority of CDL testing in Missoula. When he is not busy conducting CDL tests or doing VIN inspections, he is assisting staff at the counter with customers or conducting Class D road tests.

Further, Milo is an outstanding teammate to everyone who works with him. He has been responsible for training many of the Examiners we have on our staff and he is always available to anyone in the state to answer questions and provide guidance. He is never too busy to help. Milo has a wealth of information and institutional knowledge which he selflessly shares with others. Milo always exhibits a calm, professional demeanor and contributes a sense of levity to all situations.

Milo recently received praise and recognition from one of our local trucking schools (Sage Trucking) for his efforts on behalf of their company and students. The demand in the entire State of Montana for CDL drivers has increased significantly due to the Bakken oil field boon. Consequently, the trucking schools in Montana have experienced increases in student enrollment, which in turn has increased the demand on our Examiners. Missoula has seven different trucking schools and Milo has worked hard to establish good working relationships and to keep up with their needs as well as working with and taking care of the needs of the community in general.

We are proud to nominate CCE and CDE Milo Coladonato for consideration of the IDEC Examiner of the Year award.

Sincerely,

Kristine Thatcher
