Dear Ms. Hanchulak,

The Wyoming Department of Transportation would like to nominate Mrs. Karmen Warrington for the IDEC Examiner of the Year Award. Karmen has been employed with Driver Services for almost 7 years and has shown exemplary customer service and dedication during this time. Karmen is currently an Examiner in our Rawlins, Wyoming location.

Here is what Karmen's supervisor Renae Livermore had to say regarding Karmen. "Karmen has always been a very dedicated employee and is always willing to travel to other locations and help out when they are understaffed. Karmen also has to operate the Rawlins office when her supervisor off or assisting in other locations. This year, Karmen attended CDE training in Casper and received her certification. Karmen also volunteered to attend the CDL Process Improvement Training with Phyllis Lundy in Cheyenne. In this training we worked as a team to streamline our CDL scheduling process.

Karmen is married and has a son Danny that is 6 years old and attends school at Sinclair WY. Karmen likes to crochet, cook, hunt, fish, rock hunt, and studies her Native American culture and bead work. Karmen has been a great asset to our department."

Karmen's dedication to the department is always apparent, during last year's winter storm that closed down Interstate 80 between Laramie and Cheyenne, Karmen braved the conditions to ensure she made it to training on time. When training was over and the road still wasn't open for her to travel home, she spent time in the Cheyenne exam station helping out. This is just normal operations for Karmen. WYDOT is very fortunate to have such a wonderful employee.

Respectfully,

Misty Zimmerman
