Dear [Redacted]:

Your request for an administrative hearing has been received and a stay has been placed on the suspension of your operator's license. You may drive pending the result of the motor vehicle hearing or unless otherwise notified.

If your license is not in your possession you will need to request an operator's license to drive pending the motor vehicle administrative hearing. You will be notified, in writing, under separate cover of the date, time and location of your hearing.

Sincerely,

Robert E. O'Connell, Jr.
