

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 28, 2014

Contact:

Claire O'Brien, Communications and Multimedia Manager, AAMVA

703.908.2955

cobrien@aamva.org

AAMVA Welcomes Iowa Official as Chair of the AAMVA International Board of Directors

Arlington, VA – During its 81st Annual International Conference in Dover, Delaware, the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators (AAMVA) elected Mark Lowe, Director of the Motor Vehicle Division of the Iowa Department of Transportation, as Chair of its International Board of Directors.

“We are very excited to have Mark Lowe leading us into 2014 as AAMVA Chair,” said former chair of the AAMVA Board of Directors, Jennifer Cohan. “His experience, along with his enthusiasm and commitment to public service, will benefit AAMVA greatly in the forthcoming year.”

Lowe has been director of the Motor Vehicle Division of the Iowa Department of Transportation since April 1, 2009. Before taking this position, Lowe served as general counsel to the Iowa DOT.

Before entering state government, Lowe was an associate and then shareholder with Hopkins & Huebner, P.C. in Des Moines. He has also served as associate general counsel for Norwest Financial and, prior to law school, as a planner at the Region XII Council of Governments in Carroll, Iowa. Lowe is a 1988 graduate of Iowa State University with a bachelor's degree in community and regional planning. Lowe earned his law degree from Drake University in 1993 and served there as editor-in-chief of the Drake Law Review for the 1992-1993 year.

Founded in 1933, AAMVA actively promotes traffic safety and uniformity among North American jurisdictions. Representing chief motor vehicle administrators and law enforcement officials, the association develops uniform programs in driver licensing, vehicle titling/registration and motor carrier services, among others.

For more information visit www.aamva.org.

AAMVA