AAMVA Thanks Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) Deputy Secretary for His Service

Arlington, VA – During the 2018 AAMVA Annual International Conference in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators (AAMVA) congratulated Kurt Myers, outgoing chair of its International Board of Directors, for his dedication and service during the past year. Myers serves as Deputy Secretary for the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT).

During his tenure as AAMVA Chair, Myers' accomplishments included updating AAMVA's Strategic Framework, ensuring the association's core vision of Safe Drivers, Safe Vehicles, Secure Identities, Saving Lives remains at the heart of AAMVA's operations and initiatives, and tightening the goals and the metrics on which progress is measured.

"AAMVA has been very fortunate to have such a dedicated and customer-conscious leader over the past year," said Anne S. Ferro, AAMVA President & CEO. "Kurt Myers has been a tireless advocate for highway safety, and we thank him for all he has done to move AAMVA forward."

Founded in 1933, AAMVA serves North American motor vehicle and law enforcement agencies to accomplish their missions. The association's vision - Safe Drivers, Safe Vehicles, Secure Identities, Saving Lives - guides AAMVA's activities, resources, and programs in driver licensing, vehicle titling/registration, motor carrier services, identity management, and technology solutions.
